Dear Doctor,

Thank you for being a Guru user – we are happy to be a part of your practice! And welcome to Guru News, the compact periodic newsletter on all things Guru. In this inaugural issue we would like to share with you some of the exciting recent developments at The House of Guru and how they will benefit you.

Guru Introduces New Customer-Centric Company Structure

Reality Engineering LLC, the inventor and maker of the Guru patient communication and consultation suite, has taken over the responsibility for Sales and Marketing of the Guru product line as well as all Customer Training and Support from its distribution partner Henry Schein Practice Solutions. The Guru user base is growing rapidly and we feel that providing these core business functions in-house will lead to an even better customer service and owner experience.

Along with this restructuring, Reality Engineering has moved its headquarters from Camas, WA to Reno, NV and heavily invested in the expansion of its Operations, Customer Care, and Training Teams to better serve the Guru user base. The new offices are located at 50 W Liberty St, Suite #301, Reno, NV 89501. The customer service team can be reached at: service@thehouseofguru.com.
